

Hong Kong Securities
and Investment Institute
香港證券及投資學會

10TH BUSINESS ETHICS FORUM

// Business Ethics in the Digital Era //

POSTPONED - NEW DATE TO BE ANNOUNCED

Friday, 7 February 2020 | JW Marriott Hotel Hong Kong

8:30am Registration

9:00am Introduction

9:05am Welcome Remarks by HKSI Institute Chairman

9:10am Opening Remarks by Mr Paul Chan, Financial Secretary of The Government of the Hong Kong SAR

9:20am Ethics and AI - A Global Perspective

9:35am Industry Panel: Ethical Digital Framework Beyond People and Culture

In the digital era, the sheer quantity and quality of data collected by businesses has increased dramatically and exponentially. The panelists will share the challenges face in today's fast changing business environment. They will also share their insights and best practices in data and AI ethics, including ownership, confidentiality, transparency, consent, privacy and openness, which are essential components for an ethical digital framework.

10:50am Coffee & Tea Break

11:15am Regulatory Panel: The Rise of Data and AI Ethics

The trend of big data is affecting every stakeholder in the industry, including regulators. The regulators will share their views on good business ethics code and framework related to data and AI ethics in the digital era. They will also share their expectation and roles in shaping the ethical digital framework in the future.

12:30pm Luncheon

1:15pm Luncheon Keynote Speech by Mr Ashley Alder, Chief Executive Officer,
Securities and Futures Commission
Vigilant and Impartial: The SFC's New Approach to Regulation in a Time of Change

2:15pm Closing Remarks by Organising Chair of BEF 2020

Diamond Sponsors

CFA Institute

FitchLearning

Grant Thornton
致同

一通
i-access.com